Where Is Your Hometown?

A Variety of different places have over the years created a unique melting pot of lifestyles here at Edgecliff College. The 1978-79 academic year is no exception. Whether the students here came from a city, small town or even from across the ocean they all seem to grow together to form the Edgecliff Community

CAMPUS LIFE

Students relax in the lounge while catching up on some reading.

Administration Building

"But it is my last dime!"

Students converse over the days lecture, in the Garden Room.

"Hold this for me, please."

The new student lounge was enjoyed by many.

Registration

Looks like Madge should not have tried taking his frizbee.

"You have got to be kidding!"

A nice brisk walk threw the snow in front of Sullivan Hall.

Behind the Library.

"According to my book, the only way you can get rid of that headache is to take two Tylenol."

Elma working on a bust of a man for sculpture class.

Maryann Camp

Enjoying the company of friends while walking to class.

"It is in here somewhere, I saw it just a minute ago."

Bill Johnson and Bill Jackson — a couple of wild and crazy guys!

Behind Emery

It looks like he is shooting in the dark, but he is not.

"I talk to you, of myself, threw my paintings."

Giving a helping hand, to a friend.

Sculpture class

Emery Galaries during winter.

"But, But ... You can not have a test today!"

"I can not believe we are eating this!"

"You are not going to believe this, but I'm having my picture taken."

Student lounge in Grace Hall.

Seventh floor dinner with Tessie, Loradonna, and Alison.

Students can enjoy many scenes on campus.

"Flowers have beauty which not everyone can understand."

The white trees add a, ah, to walking to class.

"The Edgecliff Students Trilingual Association is so called not because members are fluent in three languages, rather the Spanish, French and German departments are incorporated into it. (Never mind the fact that the German department is now "defunked")"

There are only a few "active" members, but they are VERY active. This fall, for the second year, E.S.T.A. sponsored an Oktoberfest. The Polka Dots, an area German band, provided the music. And of course there was plenty of knackwurst and beer.

This spring, E.S.T.A. in conjunction with the Spanish Club of Xavier, is having a "fiesta", with tacos and sangria (to be held at Xavier), and there too a mass in Spanish Easter Sunday. In conjunction with the Pan American Society of Cincinnati, E.S.T.A. is looking forward to presenting an "Espectaculo" — a review of Spanish music and dance by many professionals and outstanding amateurs.

The club has two mottos. The official Latin motto is "Non Multa Sed Multum" (Not Quantity but Quality). The informal English motto is "Left, Right, or Center, We Do It Better."

Activities:

The club sponsored a voter registration drive last fall. EPSC also sponsors visits to insomnia patients in hospitals and nursing homes. Club members assist these patients in obtaining necessary sleep by reading to them passages from the political theory of John Adams. Results have been Dramatic.

Other club activities include bake sales, raffles, various recreational activities, and trips to professional conventions. In past years the club has attended conventions in Chicago, Atlanta, New Orleans, and Nashville. This year the club was prevented from attending a convention due to previous commitments to insomnia therapy.

August 1978
September 1978

Freshmen orientation began August 21. Classes began soon after on the 28th.

The school year started off right with Labor Day Holiday Sept. 4th. During Sept. many clubs held their first meeting to plan the years activities and to elect officers. The 17-23 is Student Government Senate week with something to do everyday. The first major event occurs during Sept., the fall formal. Pictured dancing is Lee Riegart with Steve Robinson and Julie Stingert with Steve Tetreault. The guy in the mask is Steve Robinson and the fella breaking into his own car is Mark McKenzie.

Fall Formal

October 1978

October proved to be a very busy month. On the 6th the first EDGECLIFF NEWS publication came out for the year. It was as entertaining as it was informative. October 13th marked Mid-semester, time sure flies. The first Get Away Weekend was the 12-15th and what a nice weekend it was. The annual student-faculty-administration get together and talk session occurred in the student forum Oct. 13. October 20-22 is parents weekend sponsored by Student Government. It gives the parents a chance to take a look at the school and meet the administration. The weekend comes to a climax with a dance on Saturday night in honor of the parents.

Parents Weekend

The end of October climaxed with the Student Government Halloween Party. It turned out to be the largest crowd ever. Everyone came dressed up as a spook and the costumes were absolutely fantastic. After much debate the winner of the group costume was Julie Stinger and Steve Tetreault dressed as Raggedy Ann and Andy. Others pictured are Stewart Monihan with Bev Schulty and Lynn Bowie and Daisy Brown. The Winner of the annual Pumpkin decorating contest was the 5th floors' haunted house.

Halloween

November 1978

The first of four plays given by our theater department opened in October the 13-22; "The Servant of Two Masters". The second play (pictured below) was "The Swan", March 30-April 8. Of course the Christmas production which ran December 7-17. The final play is presented during the summer with dinner and stars. The music department, also outstanding has both a vocal and instrumental productions all year round. The Edgecliff Singers sing a varied repertoire of songs throughout the Cincinnati area. The musicians at E.C. have numerous recitals also. One pictured below is a Classical Guitar Ensemble consisting of (L-R) Al Simon, Melody Tolmie, Jackie Schreibis, and Don Mackie.

December 1978

CHRISTMAS is the most joyous and celebrated time of the year. At Edgecliff it is no exception. Everywhere you look there are signs of Christmas. Not only the physical signs but the spiritual signs; those deep down inside that we share with all of mankind.

As the semester comes to an end and Christmas/Hanukkah draws closer there does not seem to be enough hours in a day. There are displays to see, shopping to do, lights to watch, friends to visit, parties to go to and cards to write, etc.

Christmas Time

January 1979

January a New Year and new (maybe old) resolutions. After a long rested vacation students have to get back into the swing of things. The 50's dance, sponsored by Student Government, was one way to do this. Another way to slide into the new year was the Student Government Ski Expedition on January 26-28 at Sugar Creek.

Fifties Dance

February 1979

February is the month of love, Valentines. Taking the time to show someone that they are special to you. Pictured below are students celebrating Valentines dancing with their favorites at the Student Government valentine dance, Feb. 14th.

Valentine Dance

March 1979

All the clubs have activities running all through the year; bake sales, parties, fashion shows, skating, raffles, recitals, plays ("Godspell" pictured below), dances, movies, speakers, just to name a few. One event that occurs every year though is the student government picnic held behind Emery. Everyone comes and munches on chicken and drinks beer and lemonade. Some people get energetic and they toss a frisbee, but most just sit and listen to the music and chat with friends.

April 1979

No one can forget the funniest day of the year, April Fool Day. We all stay on our toes to keep from getting caught in an April Fool's joke but try to get someone else and it is usually when we are trying to get someone else that someone else gets you. Besides April being the month of Jewish Passover and Easter for Edgecliff students it means Spring Formal.

Spring Formal

SPRING FORMAL is the biggest event on campus. This years dance was held at Drawbridge Inn in Kentucky. The band was excellent which made it impossible for anyone not to have a good time.

May 1979

Edgecliff College has a rare treasure on its campus. Besides the beauty and historical quality, Emery (art department) offers a wide range of shows year round for everyone's enjoyment. The day every student at Edgecliff looks forward to came May 2nd, the last day of classes.

The seniors said farewell to their friends in the dorm by giving short skirts (pictures), but that was just one thing to do before May 12th, Commencement and Sunday, May 13th, Graduation. Seniors will miss their college days but they have many challenges awaiting them.

Used By Permission

I've been used by so many,
With my own permission extended
Gladly like an open sweaty-palmed Hand.

I've ordered my own contract.
(Guaranteed to Twist and Contort one's Character — or Money back.)

I was Bubble Gum,

Chewed and sucked of my sweet innocence and spit into the can when Dry.

But I've grown up now —

I've learned so much ...

From now on — I'll charge a fee.

When Children Ask: Where Are They Hiding?

Where do colors go,
When fall blows them away?
Do they hide in the ground, or do they go away?

Away to sunny places,
Or in a box on a shelf,
Where do all the colors go,
When they do leave myself?

Do the colors turn into birds, or animals we see?
Where do all the colors go,
When they hide from me?

I think the colors are soaked up for the spring,
And put in boxes on a shelf,
And they are saved for the Flowers and for the sun itself.

So when the colors leave,
Be not full of woe,
But wait for the flowers.
Colors come when flowers grow.

A New Teacher Learns

As a student I always wondered why we prayed
Before the day began, before each class, and after classes were over.
I think I understand.

The first prayer is to ask God to protect us from the students, and also to keep our sanity.

The prayer before class is to ask God to give us patience,
So we don't belt the kids across the head.

And the final prayer
Is to Thank God,
For letting us make it through the day.

A Small Boy In A Dark Room

The shadows are alive!

Faceless,
Eyeless,
Horrors, in the corners,
Under the bed,
Behind the door.

The wind, through an open window,

Murdered the candle ...

And me.

Hermit's Haunted House

Ugly old man
Lives on a hill
With the over grown weeds
As a heavy veil of mystery
That calls out to the children
(as a Pied Pipers song might)

Come haunt the mean old man,
Come find his secret for living alone,
Come fool the ugly one,
Sneak very silently into his home.

But the old man knows they come,
he expects them.
How else would he get his meals.

The R.A.'s Of 6th Floor

For Karen And Lorene

A new experience that is dorm life

You
A frightened, lonely freshman

A kind person with a warm smile greeted you
She made you feel welcomed and safe

That is a R.A.

Another
Bubbly, warm, having a cheerful smile
Made this new experience seem worthwhile

That is a R.A.

Both so warm and kind
Letting you know you are special as you

Lorene and Karen
Thank you for all those extra-special memories!

Last Night

Last night, as the sun set,
I saw your profile silhouetted on the wall,
But when I opened my eyes,
You were gone.

I sat there in the dusk,
My eyes straining to see you,
Walking past my house,
Through the meadows path.
But you weren't there.

The moon's silvery beams,
Reached out and touched my face.
The fog rolling softly upon me,
Like your warm breath.
But it wasn't you.

Like the sunset,
You made a spectacular show,
And like the creeping fog,
Death took you away.
Now all that is left,
Are the hauntingly beautiful memories,
Left of you.

Rest

My life was once so dark
I really had no hope.
Sought for life's meaning
Tried religion, philosophy, dope, ...

But then Jesus found me
I was immersed in HIS name,
He filled me with the Holy Ghost
Speaking in tongues — born again!

His blood he shed so free for sinners to redeem
Hallelujah — God loves us!
Praise His holy name.

Now if your life is lonely
— a heart of groping despair and you're just not satisfied with your intellectual air

Just give your heart to Jesus
He'll wash you in His blood and fill your heart with a heavenly flood
— the Voice of HIS Love.

Don't die a fool;
JESUS is the Only Way.
Trust Him, surrender ALL your will — His holy Word obey.

— and He will give you
Rest

Somewhere

Somewhere within,
A frustrated me
Waits impatiently
To surface.
He waits like
An insecure
Mistress;
Early,
For a dark, secluded
trist.
Or a small boy
Separated
By a foggine pane
From a new fallen PLAYLAND.
Deep inside I feel him
Squirm and struggle to be FREE from my conscious grasp.
Someday I know he will sneak loose
AND I will be me somewhere within HIM.

J. Handorf

Sound May Break The Crystal

The night is silent,
The crystal tree glisten,
Reflecting silvery rays.

The silence is broken by sound,
sounds of hushed movement,
of padded footsteps,
Silently treading upon the Frozen Soldiers.

The soldiers, who, with their Spike studded helmets and Scaley coats are ready to pierce,
If hands are laid upon them,
But within warning they are Cut down.

Suddenly there is a crash of glassy crystal.
A blue of color feathers and a flash of White make their escape.
All have been alerted to the intruder's Presence.

I then turn and leave the field,
Making my retreat to my warm room
and loving friends,
To dream about this hidden
Protected world of fragile beauty.

"Sleeves"

Karen Boeddeker

Untitled

In this life I feel that I am nothing.
More than a passing fantasy. An Illusion
An invention of another's dream, but if I Am a figure of another's dream I must have Substance, I must be real — for I am needed.

J.M. Bertke

At 6 am. a mist hung over the river like a pelican.
Only a few twinkling lights shown from Covington.
(Ascending there was clear pink and light blue;
That blended into the deep again, with one star shining through.)

Aruba sends us their best by way of the 1979-80 D.C. Josie Ponson. A natural rock bridge forms the backdrop for Josie and her uncle. Another favorite spot for Edgecliff students is beautiful warm Daytona Beach Fla.

INDIANA

CINCINNATI

In contrast to the everchanging night life of "Cincy", downtown in the daytime offers an old world charm.

WASHINGTON D.C.

ATLANTA

City life can come in the form of the Peachtree Center Skyscraper in Atlanta Ga. or a scenic residential area in Washington D.C.

COVINGTON KY.

ABERDEEN OH.

Along the Ohio River life seems to be quite calm and peaceful.

TOLEDO OH.

Historic sites are not confined to any one part of the world. Toledo OH. gives us "Fort Meigs" where part of the war of 1812 was fought. While in Williamsburg VA. still stands the courthouse where the decision to break from the British Crown was first made.

The Edgecliff Yearbook Staff

Putting a yearbook together representing every aspect of the school is not all that easy. It takes many countless hours, lots of imagination and hard work. We the Edgecliff staff hope you enjoy this book of memories. Many thanks to all who contributed to the 1978-79 yearbook. To the rest of the staff I would like to say it has been a pleasure knowing and working with each of you.

Thank You,

Karen Boeddeker
